#ASunWSoc Notes

• In five of the last six A-Sun Championships, a first round match has been decided by penalty kicks. The better seed has advanced to the semifinals in three of those six occasions.

• Home teams are 1-2-3 in the past six A-Sun Championship First Round matches. Stetson picked up the lone win in 2009, but the home team has advanced in two of the last penalty kick showdowns.

• Only one first-round match has been decided by more than one goal in the past seven A-Sun Championships (2008).

• The lowest seed to ever win the A-Sun Championship was fifth-seeded Jacksonville in 2006. Last year, Mercer advanced to the A-Sun Championship Final as a six seed.

• The top-seeded team has appeared in the last five championship finals and has advanced to the final match in every championship except for the 2006 tournament.

• Kennesaw State's Katrina Frost is the first A-Sun women's soccer student-athlete to tally back-to-back double-digit goal seasons since Stetson's Tessa Gavilsky (2008, 09). Frost has 10 goals this year and scored 11 last season.

• ETSU's Ramey Kerns retook the national lead for goals this week by moving her season total to 20. Kerns' ranks seventh all-time in the A-Sun single-season record books for goals and 12th for points (44).

• Jacksonville is appearing in its ninth-straight A-Sun Championship - the longest streak among current A-Sun teams. The Dolphins are 5-6-4 during the streak and won the 2006 title. JU has advanced to the semifinals in six of the past eight tournaments.

• Last year, North Florida earned its first A-Sun tournament win with a 1-0 road victory at Belmont in its second tournament appearance.

• The Ospreys feature three of the top-five goal scorers in the conference as Carolina Lencina, Lauren Hopfensperger and Michelle Larrinaga have combined for 54 career goals.

• Jacksonville's Becca Massip and Mercer's P.A. Upson are tied for the most career starts amongst active players with 76. The duo currently rank tied for 17th most all-time and will move into 14th with their next starts.

• Kennesaw State or Mercer has reached the championship final in each of the past five tournaments. The two teams meet for the A-Sun title in 2007.

• Kennesaw State and Jacksonville are tied for the most A-Sun Championship title amongst active teams at two. JU has appeared in the most championship finals at five just ahead of Mercer with four.

• ETSU's Sarah Zadrazil, the A-Sun Freshman of the Year, is tied with FGCU's Ashley Ciesielczyk, the A-Sun Defensive Player of the Year, for the most assists in the A-Sun with 10.
