2009 General Shale Brick Atlantic Sun Championships

Wednesday, March 4-Saturday, March 7, 2009

Allen Arena - Lipscomb University - Nashville, Tenn.

It took until the results of the final conference games were in, but the seeds and schedules are finally set for the 2009 General Shale Brick Atlantic Sun Championships that start Wednesday from Lipscomb's Allen Arena. Jacksonville earned the top seed for the first time in school history with a win at Belmont; the Bruins ended up with the third spot. ETSU's 103-81 victory against Mercer pushed the Buccaneers into the second seed. The host Bisons continued their winning streak, as they pushed it to eight against UNF and locked up the fourth seed. Campbell, by virtue of its win on Friday night against Stetson and Mercer's loss, will take on Lipscomb. The Bears fell to sixth with the Hatters seventh. The Men's Championship kicks off at 8:30 p.m. CT when ETSU and Stetson meet on CSS. The network will broadcast a total of nine games during the week. For those unable to attend in person and outside of CSS markets, ASun.TV will carry every game of the Championship, other than the men's title game. ESPN2 has the title game at 5:00 p.m. CT on Saturday.

A-Sun Player of the Week: Ben Smith, Jacksonville

Needing a victory against Belmont to clinch the regular-season title, Jacksonville's Ben Smith delivered that win for the Dolphins and for his efforts, he claimed the season's final Player of the Week honor.

Smith scored a team-leading 27 points in the 84-82 overtime victory. The scoring accounted for only part of a full stat sheet that included eight assists, six rebounds and five steals. The junior from Dublin, Ga., connected on 10-of-19 shots from the field, including three 3-point field goals.

In two games during the weekend, Smith, a sports administration major, averaged 23.0 points per game, 5.5 rebounds per game and 2.5 steals per game while shooting better than 45 percent from the field. He dished out 13 assists against only three turnovers in 80 minutes of play.
