

2010 General Shale Brick
Atlantic Sun Women's Basketball Championship
University Center – Macon, Ga. ~ March 6, 2010

Game Notes: No. 1 ETSU 63, No. 7 UNF 62

ETSU

- * ETSU win is their 23rd of the season, setting a single-season record and their 10th consecutive victory, also a school record
- * TaRonda Wiles, who made the game-winning basket, tallied her fourth double-double of the year with 14 points and 10 rebounds – her first since Jan. 23 at Belmont (20 pts, 10 rebs)
- * Evans finished with 20 points and 11 rebounds, her 21th double-double of the season and the 54th of her career. In her last five A-Sun Championship games (the 2009 and 2010 events), Evans has five double-doubles, averaging 19.2 ppg and 11.6 rebounds.
- * Evans, the Tournament MVP becomes only the 4th in A-Sun Championship history to win multiple MVP awards joining Georgia State's Evita Rogers (2002, 2003), FIU's Andrea Nagy (1992-95) and Georgia Southern's Phyllette Blake (1987-89)
- * The Buccaneers lead the all-time series with Ospreys by a 9-1 count.

UNF

- * UNF, who already became the lowest seed to make and A-Sun Women's title game, nearly became the lowest seed to win the A-Sun Championship (Sixth-seeded UCF defeated FAU in 1996)
- * Arlande Cherizol recorded her third double-double of season with 12 points and 12 rebounds
- * Brittany Kirkland handed out 7 assists for the second straight game, one off her career high, 8, set against Stetson on Jan. 9.

A-SUN CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- * ETSU wins its 9th straight A-Sun Championship game. The Lady Bucs join Georgia State (2001-03) and Florida International (1992-95) as the only schools in A-Sun history to win three straight titles.
- * ETSU's win gives top seeds 15 A-Sun Tournament titles in the 24 years of the event, including each of the last four.
- * ETSU's victory represents the first women's title game decided by a single point since 2002 when Georgia State defeated Florida Atlantic, 64-63
