

2010 General Shale Brick
Atlantic Sun Women's Basketball Championship
University Center – Macon, Ga. ~ March 5, 2010

Game Notes: No. 7 UNF 50, No. 6 Jacksonville 46

JACKSONVILLE

- * Gigi Thomas led the Dolphins with 12 points. In two A-Sun Championship games, she averaged 17.5 points.
- * Jacksonville shot only 24.6 percent from the floors (15-for-61), their lowest percentage since shooting 23.5 percent (16-for-68) against Howard on Nov. 25.

UNF

- * After dropping eight straight to their crosstown rivals, the Ospreys have now won back-to-back games against the Dolphins.
- * Shennette Sheffield tied an A-Sun Championship single-game record for blocks with six. Belmont's Jessica Bobbitt set the record in the 2007 title game against ETSU.
- * With 13 rebounds, Arlande Cherizol recorded her eighth double-digit rebound game of the season.
- * In three games against Jacksonville, Cherizol averaged 13.0 rebounds – including a career high 18 on Jan. 18.
- * The Ospreys have held each of their last eight opponents to less than 70 points.

A-SUN CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- * UNF becomes the lowest seed to ever make the Women's Championship Final. On three occasions a No. 6 seed advanced to the title game with UCF, in 1996, doing it most recently. That UCF team owns the only title won a sixth seed. Georgia Southern in 1992 and Mercer in 1993 represent the only sixth-seeded teams to make the final
