

2010 General Shale Brick
Atlantic Sun Women's Basketball Championship
University Center: March 4, 2010

Game Notes: No. 6 Jacksonville 52, No. 3 Campbell 46

CAMPBELL

- * The Camels drop their eighth consecutive A-Sun Championship game. Their last win came in a 2001 semifinal game against Troy State
- * Katie Cloxton, second in the conference in assists entering the game, failed to record an assist for the first time this season
- * The Camels fall to 2-12 when trailing at the half

JACKSONVILLE

- * Gigi Thomas established career highs in points (23), made field goals (10) and field goals attempted (19). Her previous highs were 15 points, done twice, 6 field goals, done three times and 15 attempts, set against FGCU on Jan. 9.
- * In her last three games, Thomas has averaged 17.3 points and shot 22-for-42 (52.4 pct) from the field.
- * Thomas records the fourth 20-point scoring performance for a Dolphin this year, joining Courtney Jackson, Desarae Johnson and Drameka Griggs. Jackson (24 pts) and Johnson (21) both reached that mark in a Dec. 21 game against ETSU. Griggs scored 23 against UNF on Jan. 27.
- * The Dolphins improve to 7-0 this season when holding an opponent to 55 points or fewer.

A-SUN CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- * Jacksonville advances to its fourth straight semifinal, matching ETSU for the longest active streak in the conference. The two have met in each of the last 2 A-Sun finals and would be a track for a 3rd showdown if both win on Friday.
- * The Dolphins win gives lower seeded teams two wins in the quarterfinal round for the first time in the Women's Championship since 2001 when No. 5 Stetson and No. 6 Mercer picked up wins against No. 4 UCF and No. 3 Belmont.
- * The Dolphins' win sets up the second River City Rumble of the A-Sun Championship. The respective men's teams met on Wednesday with JU pulling out a 76-69 win. The women split their regular-season meetings
