A-Sun Game of the Week

Florida State at Mercer

Saturday, November 21, 2009 - 4:30 p.m.

University Center - Macon, Ga.

For the third straight November, Mercer welcomes an opponent from a BCS conference to the University Center. In their last two homecoming games, the Bears battled Alabama to 90-83 contest and last year led Georgia Tech by 18 in the second half before falling in overtime. The Bears opened the season by picking up two victories at the World Vision Invitational (Bucknell, Bryant) with their lone loss, coming by two points to the host, Providence. James Florence moved into second on the school's all-time scoring list (1,807 points) and Danny Emerson grabbed 37 rebounds. No player in the country pulled down more rebounds in the opening week of action than Emerson. Saturday's contest concludes a opening three-game stretch for the Seminoles against the Atlantic Sun. A-Sun Player of the Week:

James Florence, Mercer

Mercer's James Florence led the Bears to a 2-1 record to open the season and earned the first Atlantic Sun Men's Basketball Player of the Week honor for the 2009-10 season.

Florence led the Bears to a 2-1 record at the World Vision Invitational. The Marietta, Ga. native made the all-tournament team averaging 23.3 points per game and poured in a Mercer tournament-high of 33 against Bucknell in the Bears' 89-80 opening round win. Florence's 70 points puts him only 179 points shy from becoming Mercer's all-time scoring leader. Only one player in the nation, Washington's Isaiah Thomas, (74 points, 24.7 PPG) racked up more points this opening week than Florence.

The communication studies major opened the season and the tournament with a 33-point effort against Bucknell. In addition, he passed out four assists and pulled down five rebounds.

* The opening weekend saw a plethora of newcomers make a splash with their new teams. Among the highlights: Belmont freshman guard Ian Clark opened with 21 in a win against Portland State while transfer Scott Saunders tallied 18 against No. 13 Washington. ETSU's Justin Tubbs, an Alabama transfer, touched up Appalachian State for 11 points and nabbed four steals. Stetson redshirt freshman Ridge Graham recorded a double-double in his collegiate debut and true freshman Tyshawn Patterson added 13 in the Hatters win. Among UNF's eight newcomers, Jerron Granberry and Andy Diaz combined for 23 points on 10-for-19 shooting in their debut at Notre Dame.

These games make up two of the five home games A-Sun schools secured against BCS conference opponents. The remaining school includes Jacksonville hosting Florida on Dec. 4; Stetson plays Miami in DeLand, Fla. on Dec. 16 and FGCU brings DePaul into Alico Arena on Dec. 22.

CAMPBELL 1-0, 0-0 A-Sun

This Week: 11/17 vs East Carolina;
11/21 at UNC Asheville;
11/23 vs Virginia Tech

www.GoCamels.com

* For the first time since Harry S. Truman was in the White House, Campbell will host East Carolina in a men's basketball game played in Buies Creek. Tip off is set for 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday. The series resumed in the '80-'81 campaign after CU joined the Division I ranks. From 1981-2002, the teams played Campbell "home" games in Fayetteville where the Pirates won 11 of 17 meetings.

* The Camels come into Tuesday's game after beating DII St. Andrews, 76-52, on Friday. CU closed the game on a 15-1 run and out-rebounded the Knights 54-33. Preston Dodson (career highs 16 pts, 11 rebs) and Jonathan Rodriguez had double-doubles in a CU's season-opening win. Rodriguez notched his 40th double-double (19 pts, 12 rebs), second-highest in the A-Sun since the start of the 1996-97 season.

* On Monday, Campbell will host an ACC school in men's hoops for the first time when Virginia Tech visits Gore Area. The Camels will return the home-and-away agreement in 2010-11. CU's only win against an ACC member came on Dec. 4, 1993 when the Camels topped NC State, 75-72, in overtime in Raleigh. The Camels dropped a 94-70 decision at Virginia Tech on Dec. 23, 2006. CU hit 10 of 15 3-pointers in the first half and trailed by just four at the break (43-39).

ETSU 1-0, 0-0 A-Sun

This Week: 11/17 at Chattanooga;
11/19 at Morgan State;
11/21 at No. 22 Louisville

www.ETSUBucs.com

* With only 21 points of offensive production from its starting five on Saturday, the Bucs got a huge lift from its bench against the Mountaineers. All three ETSU players to reach double figures -- Adam Sollazzo (13), Justin Tubbs (11) and Sheldon Cooley (11) -- all came off the bench, and the Bucs got a total of 41 from the reserves as a whole.

* Before the start of Saturday's Homecoming game against Appalachian State, the ETSU community honored the memory of former center Seth Coy, who died in a car accident last summer. His former roommate and friend, Adam Sollazzo (Tampa), now wears Coy's No. 43 jersey and against the Mountaineers he played inspired basketball. Sollazzo set a career high with 13 points and hit two critical foul shots in the final seconds to lift the Bucs to a victory.

* Since winning five of their last six games a year ago and their two exhibition games this season, the Buccaneers are showing why their focus on defense is so important. Most coaches believe that team's should score at least one point to every single turnover they force. For the Bucs, this number has been much higher. In their last six games a year ago, the Bucs forced 103 turnovers and scored 132 points off those opponent mistakes.
